CANLEY VALE

Merna Karam, from Rocky's K9 Rescue, cares for an adorable puppy.

All it costs is kindness

HOW could you not want to share a kindness story after looking at this puppy's face?

Rocky's K9 Rescue in Canley Vale is a not-for-profit animal shelter that saves loving dogs from death row.

During May, Rocky's will be the featured charity for Ways To Amaze, a website dedicated to supporting the vital work of organisations.

Residents are being encouraged to upload a kindness story to the Ways To Amaze website and $1 for every story shared will be donated to Rocky's.

Michelle Glover, who adopted a dog from Rocky's, said she nominated the charity for Ways to Amaze because they gave animals a second chance at life.

"Kindness to animals is very important to me," she said. If 100 kindness stories are uploaded in May, Red Balloon will give Rocky's $1000 in experiences.
